

Writing Emails

Section 1: Email of Request

- You recently missed a lecture due to illness and need to catch up on the material covered. Write an email to your professor requesting a copy of the lecture notes or slides, and asking if there are any important announcements or updates you may have missed.
- You were unable to submit an assignment by the deadline due to unforeseen circumstances. Write an email to your professor requesting permission to submit it a few days late, along with a brief explanation.

Email of Request

Subject: Request for Lecture Notes and Class Updates

Dear Professor Harsha,

I hope that you are well. I am writing this mail to request you for permission to submit my assignment a few days late because I encountered some personal problem and I could not submit it within the required period of time.

I have completed almost all the work but I request you to give me extension to complete the remaining portion of the assignment. It would be very kind of you if you permit me to submit my assignment by 10|1|2026. I am well aware that students are supposed to submit their assignment before the deadline and I am sorry for not being able to do so.

Additionally, could you please let me know if there were any important announcements, assignment instructions, or upcoming deadlines discussed during the lecture?

Please let me know whether I can submit my assignment by 10|1|2026.

Thanking you,
